

Valuing Volunteers Study

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Australian emergency services & constitute a unique skilled workforce that provides an essential public service

Volunteer choices

Do you know what motivates your volunteer workforce?

Are the values of your volunteer workforce aligned with your corporate values?

What are the implications of changing social values for future volunteering?

